With an emphasis on the defence of personal injury and product liability claims, Dalton practises civil litigation.

He acts regularly for insurers in all aspects of litigation, providing insightful defence solutions against claims relating to risk and bodily injury, property damage, and professional liability. He also assists insurers with investigation of potentially fraudulent claims by conducting examinations under oath and providing coverage opinions.

Dalton represents clients in all levels of Court in Ontario as well as matters before the License Appeal Tribunal.

Experience

- A number of insurers in all aspects of insurance litigation, risk and bodily injury claims, property damage claims, professional liability claims, subrogated claims and accident benefits disputes.
- A number of manufacturers in matters relating to product liability.
