Commercial Litigation

Regardless of size or sector, disputes can disrupt your business's operations, reputation and bottom line. It's key to have a legal team who offer targeted advice, a collaborative mindset and vigilant advocacy.

We are the preeminent commercial litigation practice in Canada, a reputation built upon our unparalleled ability to anticipate what's next. If a commercial dispute escalates to litigation, we will collaborate with you to represent your interests, protect your position and pursue the most appropriate action to achieve results for your business.

As a multidisciplinary team, we are experienced in all areas of commercial litigation, including:

- shareholders' disputes
- contractual disputes
- directors' and officers' liability
- commercial fraud
- banking
- securities
- bankruptcy and insolvency
- estates and trusts
- franchise and distribution

Our diverse range of clients spans industries and sectors, including:

- automotive
- banking and financial services
- natural resources, including mining, oil and gas
- power generation
- pharmaceuticals
- telecommunications
- technology

Our skilled litigators are experienced at all levels of court, including the Supreme Court of Canada, and before regulatory and administrative tribunals

We can serve our clients in English and French.
