Commercial Real Estate

Belle's work is focused on transactions involving the purchase and sale of commercial real estate, including comprehensive due diligence research and analysis, and commercial lending transactions for financial institutions involving the preparation and registration of commercial lending security.

She assists the firm's lawyers and clients in a wide variety of other real estate matters including:

- relevant document preparation required in connection with land assemblies
- review and analysis of registered Land Title Office charges
- preparation and electronic registration of Land Title Office documents and Personal Property Registry charges

Belle also has expertise in working with various online mapping websites and various municipal mapping programs.
