

BLG Named Canadian Law Firm Of The Year For Derivatives

Toronto (May 11, 2018) — At Borden Ladner Gervais LLP (BLG), we deliver useful business solutions to our clients that will allow them to adapt to a challenging environment. We are thrilled to have our efforts recognized as Canadian Law Firm of the Year, in the Regulatory and Transactions categories, at the GlobalCapital Americas Derivatives Awards 2018. BLG has won every year a Canadian law firm has been recognized since the awards began in 2014.

BLG's Derivatives Group is a multi-disciplinary team of seasoned professionals from financial services, investment management and energy practice groups. The group possesses leading-edge experience and serves market participants in virtually every industry in the global derivatives markets.

The GlobalCapital Americas Derivatives Awards celebrates the companies, services and products that have improved the U.S., Canadian and Latin American derivatives markets over the last year. Nominations are based on a cross-market poll and the winners are selected by GlobalCapital's editorial board.
