Health Regulatory

Health sector clients are subject to an ever-changing maze of regulatory, funding and accountability frameworks. It's essential to have a skilled team of specialists who are experts in health care law and can anticipate and manage the full spectrum of regulatory concerns.

Our team of more than 100 healthcare specialists offer health sector clients unparalleled advice. We understand that clinical care and operations are governed by a host of regulations at the provincial and federal level and work with our clients on solutions that comply with all requirements. We appreciate that a seemingly insignificant adjustment in regulatory policy can have far-reaching implications across your organization, and can quickly assemble the best team to offer targeted advice.

We can assist with a range of issues, including:

- partnering arrangements
- private/public pay frameworks
- privacy and access to information
- telemedicine
- regulated health professionals
- interactions with industry
- clinical trials and research
- medical devices
- pharmaceuticals
