As an Articling Student, Charlie is assisting lawyers on a wide variety of tasks within our Business and Disputes groups.

Prior to joining BLG, Charlie received a Bachelor of Business Management from Western University and worked as a financial analyst at a private equity firm. He also has experience in the hospitality industry, where he developed strong client service and communication skills.

Charlie was drawn to BLG for its exceptional professional development opportunities and its commitment to supporting both personal and professional growth. He was also impressed by the firm's dedication to Pro Bono work and active community involvement.

In his spare time, Charlie loves to read, travel, spend time with his dogs and play several sports including basketball, hockey and golf.
