Justice is a summer student at BLG's Vancouver office for the 2021 summer term. Her focus is on corporate commercial and securities law. She also has an interest in Indigenous law.

As a law student at the Peter A. Allard School of Law, Justice volunteered with the Law Students' Legal Advice Program. She also held executive positions with the Women's Caucus and the Indigenous Law Students' Association. Justice is pursuing Allard's business law concentration and the Aboriginal law specialization. Prior to joining BLG, Justice worked at a boutique business and Indigenous law firm in downtown Vancouver.

Justice chose BLG because of the firm's commitment to professional development and the strong mentorship program. The BLG lawyers that Justice met throughout recruitment reinforced the firm's positive and friendly atmosphere.

In her spare time, Justice enjoys being a dog mom, staying active, reading, spending time outdoors and volunteering as a mentor with the Urban Native Youth Association.
