Émile specializes in civil and commercial litigation and dispute resolution, and supports professionals from all our practice groups.

He assists lawyers on various matters and he is sometimes required to represent clients before different judicial bodies in Québec.

Émile began his journey at BLG as a summer student, before undertaking his Barreau internship. He had previously completed two co-op internships: one with a Montréal-based boutique litigation firm and the other with a Sherbrooke high-tech company. He also has firsthand knowledge of youth law, having shadowed judge Lyne Morin of the Court of Québec.
