Adam formerly summered with BLG Calgary and assisted lawyers on a wide variety of tasks within our Business and Disputes groups.

During law school, Adam was engaged in multiple activities and community involvements. He was on the Board of Editors for the Saskatchewan Law Review, and was also an editor, writer, and executive committee member for the University of Saskatchewan College of Law's Caveat Lector Editorial Board. During his second year of law school, Adam was a clinical law student at CLASSIC Law in Saskatoon where he represented clients primarily in criminal matters and residential tenancies disputes. He has appeared before the Provincial Court of Saskatchewan and has also appeared as counsel in various tribunal settings, leading to multiple favourable outcomes for his clients.

Adam has a broad range of professional experience. He previously worked as a Site Superintendent Assistant for a construction company, had a role as a Data Manager for a tech company, and was also a Summer Student with the Calgary Minor Soccer Association. Prior to law school, Adam received a Bachelor of Education from the University of Alberta with a major in Spanish. Adam also played football for the Golden Bears for 5 seasons, serving the final 3 as a team captain. He finished his degree as a practicum teacher at Crescent Heights High School in Calgary.

Adam enjoys various team sports, cycling, coaching football, stand-up comedy, and hanging out with the family dog.
