Bunisha Samuels is dedicated to helping clients pragmatically navigate the complexities of corporate regulatory compliance.

She guides clients through the complexities of securities law, focusing on investment management and products such as ETFs and mutual funds. She also advises on competition and marketing law, transforming intricate regulations into actionable strategies that support her clients' businesses.

With an eye on global trends, including greenwashing, ESGs and anti-money laundering, Bunisha delivers proactive support to help clients stay agile and ahead of evolving legal landscapes.

Bunisha is multilingual and fluent in English, French, Spanish and Tamil. She summered and articulated at BLG before returning as an associate.
