Catherine recently retired from the partnership. Prior to her retirement, she practised in the areas of commercial real estate law and secured transactions.

She has extensive experience in:

- acquisitions and dispositions, including sale/lease back transactions and contaminated and brownfield sites
- structuring legal arrangements
- financing involving real estate including construction lending
- mixed use developments including reciprocal agreements
- Section 37 agreements with City of Toronto
- ground leases, leases, subleases and advising on lease remedies

Catherine had assumed various leadership roles within our Real Estate practice group.
