Chloe is returning to BLG after articling with firm to continue her practice focused on labour and employment and health law.

During her articling, Chloe spent three months working in-house at SickKids Hospital where she gained practical experience and insight into the hospital environment. Prior to receiving her Juris Doctor in 2018 from Queens University, Chloe graduated with a Bachelor of Commerce, Law and Business Major from Ryerson University. During her schooling, Chloe volunteered at Queen's Legal Aid and Ryerson's Business Law Clinic, gaining advocacy skills and experience working directly with clients.

Prior to BLG, Chloe worked at Bank of Montréal in their legal and compliance department.
