

FT recognizes BLG for innovation

Firm named one of Top 20 most innovative in North America

December 10, 2021 – The Financial Times, one of the world's leading news organizations, has highlighted Borden Ladner Gervais LLP among the Top 20 most innovative law firms in its Business of law category. BLG is the only Canadian firm on the list.

Additionally, BLG Beyond, the firm's alternative legal service provider, was a finalist in the Business of Law: New Solutions category at last night's Innovative Lawyer Awards North America.

BLG clients expect practical solutions based on their business requirements: shorter timelines, predictable pricing and efficient execution. Our suite of BLG Beyond services go beyond the traditional legal service delivery model – ensuring we bring our clients speed, agility and leading technology and process improvements.

Innovative Lawyers North America recognizes digitally advanced firms and in-house legal teams, ones that bring innovative, value-driven solutions to businesses. The rankings and finalists are compiled based on interviews, questionnaires and reviews.
