Callum is an associate in BLG's National School Boards Practice. He has appeared in numerous grievance arbitrations, central disputes, Ontario Labour Relations Board and Human Rights Tribunal proceedings, and other hearings on behalf of school boards.

Callum also maintains a broad litigation and advisory practice, assisting clients on education policy, student incidents, independent school issues, child care law, artificial intelligence, contract disputes, negligence claims, judicial reviews, environmental issues, land use planning, and expropriations.

Callum summered and articulated at BLG before returning as an associate.

Prior to joining BLG, Callum interned at the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) and the Centre for Law and Democracy, and he volunteered at Huron Perth Community Legal Clinic.
