Filip advises and supports clients primarily in mergers and acquisitions as well as corporate and commercial law in general. He assists businesses with structuring, negotiating, and completing various transactions, including acquisitions, sales, reorganizations, and strategic partnerships, while ensuring legal compliance and protecting their commercial interests.

His practice also includes assisting with corporate governance matters, drafting and negotiating commercial agreements, and providing strategic guidance on legal issues that impact business operations.

Prior to joining BLG, Filip competed in triathlon at an elite level and was a member of the national team.
