Janet maintains a corporate/commercial practice with a focus on the health industry. Janet is passionate about the evolution and transformation of healthcare in Canada, and she provides guidance to clients on Canada's regulatory legal landscape.

Janet negotiates complex agreements and works with healthcare providers ranging from start-ups to large hospitals and institutions. Janet has solid expertise in privacy, data security and technology law.

As former general counsel to a large full-service health clinic, Janet's expertise includes risk management, operational strategy, and patient and healthcare provider interactions. Janet's background in specialty and cyber insurance, along with incident response management, rounds out her practice.

Janet serves as part-time seconded external corporate legal counsel to one of Canada's largest hospitals.
