Sunny advises insurers, intermediaries, warranty providers, and other regulated entities on insurance coverage and regulatory matters.

She regularly assists clients with policy interpretation, coverage investigations, claims handling issues, and coverage analysis involving commercial general liability, professional liability, cyber, and specialty insurance products. She provides coverage opinions and strategic advice on complex claims and coverage disputes.

Sunny's regulatory practice focuses on matters arising under insurance, consumer protection, and financial services legislation.

She advises clients on licensing, compliance, and other regulatory requirements affecting regulated businesses. Drawing on her background in insurance litigation, Sunny provides practical advice on coverage, claims, and regulatory matters, particularly where issues may give rise to disputes.

Sunny is fluent in Korean.
