Chase represents clients in corporate commercial and mergers and acquisitions transactions, with a focus on the energy sector. He advises public and private companies on complex M&A transactions, divestitures, securities matters and corporate governance.

Chase has significant experience in the oil and gas industry, acting for energy companies on major acquisitions and dispositions, corporate reorganizations and regulatory matters. He also advises clients on general corporate commercial matters, including contract drafting and negotiation, securities compliance and corporate governance.

Prior to joining BLG, Chase practised at another leading Calgary law firm.
