Charities and giving - What's new

Recent news and updates:

Attention all registered charities! Public Services and Procurement Canada (PSPC) is inviting registered charities interested in receiving donations of surplus goods from the federal government to identify themselves.

PSPC is seeking charities interested in the following items:

- Entertainment items
- Games and toys
- Clothing, footwear, outerwear
- Outdoor equipment
- Household items
- Furniture

To participate, complete the Request for Information questionnaire currently posted on the Buyandsell.gc.ca site by August 30, 2019. The information you provide will help PSPC determine the demand for donations and evaluate the viability of a program for donating Government of Canada surplus goods.
