Myra Magusiak Janssen is the Director of Business Development for the Disputes practice at BLG.

With more than 20 years of business development experience in the legal industry, Myra brings a depth of knowledge and a strategic lens to everything she does – translating the firm's broader objectives into focused, actionable plans that drive meaningful revenue growth.

In her role, Myra works closely with key stakeholders across the Disputes practice to develop, execute and manage targeted business development and marketing initiatives.

Her approach is both collaborative and deliberate – aligning the priorities of diverse stakeholder groups with the firm's strategic direction to position BLG's disputes lawyers for sustained success in a competitive market.
