

A leader in Canada: BLG named Canadian firm of the year for derivatives (regulatory)

May 26, 2021 — Borden Ladner Gervais LLP (BLG) advises clients that transact in derivatives markets in Canada and across the world. With one of the largest and most experienced derivatives business practices in North America, we are well equipped to address our clients' most pressing business concerns.

We are thrilled to be recognized as Canadian Law Firm of the Year in the Regulatory category, at the 2021 GlobalCapital Americas Derivatives Awards. Since its inception in 2014, GlobalCapital has every year recognized BLG as a leader among Canada's law firms.

BLG's Derivatives Group is a multi-disciplinary team of experienced professionals that serve market participants in virtually every industry in the global derivatives market. Market participants trust our team to help them with novel derivative development, negotiation and documentation, and to represent them before regulators.

The GlobalCapital Americas Derivatives Awards honours the companies, services and products that have improved the United States, Canadian and Latin American derivatives markets over the past year. Nominations are based on a cross-market poll, with winners selected by GlobalCapital's editorial board.
