Farrukh is a summer student at BLG's Calgary office for the 2021 summer term.

Farrukh previously worked as the assistant branch manager for one of National Money Mart's largest branches and oversaw its operations. Prior to attending law school, Farrukh completed his paralegal education, and subsequently passed the licensing exam to become a licensed paralegal of the Law Society of Ontario. Farrukh also spent time as a volunteer football coach at his old high school.

Farrukh chose to work at BLG due to the firm's impeccable reputation for student development, fostering a collegial environment, and excellent client management. After getting to know a number of members from the firm during the formal recruitment process, it became clear to Farrukh that BLG would be an ideal work environment to not only maximize his legal career, but to also learn from some of the most accomplished legal professionals in all of Canada.

Farrukh is an impassioned sports fan. The sports Farrukh follows most frequently are basketball and football.

Education

- BA Hons. (Cum Laude), York University, 2019
- Paralegal Education Diploma, Humber College, 2016
- JD candidate, Thompson Rivers University, 2022
