

Federal Financial Institutions Legislative and Regulatory Reporter — March 2019

May 03, 2019

The Reporter provides a monthly summary of Canadian federal legislative and regulatory developments of relevance to federally regulated financial institutions. It does not address Canadian provincial financial services legislative and regulatory developments, although this information is tracked by BLG and can be provided on request. In addition, purely technical and administrative changes (such as changes to reporting forms) are not covered.

Department of Finance	Canada Gazette Part I (March 9, 2019)	Proposed Payment Clearing and Settlement Regulations Financial market infrastructures (FMIs)	Sections 1 to 18 of the final regulations to be effective no earlier than the day section 237 of the Budget Implementation Act,

		contribute to financial stability by supporting the continuous functioning of payment systems and financial markets, which is especially important in times of severe financial system stress. FMIs also reduce uncertainty in times of financial system stress by having robust and transparent default management mechanisms in place. However, in the unlikely event that a systemically important FMI should fail, a disruption in its critical economic functions could lead to significant adverse effects on the functioning of the financial system and economic activity in Canada. These FMIs are typically large, lack substitutes in the markets they serve, and have strong links to banks and other financial institutions, including other FMIs. The Budget Implementation Act, 2018, No. 1 (assented to June 21, 2018) amends the Payment Clearing and Settlement Act (PCSA) to implement an FMI resolution framework so that the appropriate tool kit is in place to intervene in the unlikely event that a systemically important FMI fails.
