Marta O. Lewycky joins BLG's National Leasing Centre

Senior counsel brings 30 years of experience in leasing matters

Toronto (April 17, 2020) – Borden Ladner Gervais LLP (BLG) recently welcomed Marta O. Lewycky, who joined the firm as senior counsel. Marta is the latest addition to the BLG's National Leasing Centre, and has over 30 years of experience representing developers, property owners and tenants in commercial real estate leasing matters.

"At this moment in history many of our clients are dealing with unprecedented leasing issues, and Marta brings a significant amount of expertise and experience to help them negotiate the best possible outcomes," said Stephen Redican, National Group Head of Specialized Business at BLG.

Prior to joining BLG, Marta practised commercial leasing, real estate and construction law with a leading mid-sized firm in Toronto, and spent over 13 years as VP, National Legal Affairs at one of Canada's largest shopping centre developers. She is an active member of the International Council of Shopping Centres (ICSC) and a member of the advisory board of the Advanced Commercial Leasing Institute at Georgetown Law School.

BLG's National Leasing Centre (NLC) delivers innovative solutions to take the guesswork out of our clients' leasing portfolios. Our unique one-stop model puts our clients first and allows them to consolidate leasing support work in a single phone call. In addition to providing national coverage, our state-of-the-art suite of tools offers comprehensive leasing support on an integrated platform. We invest in our clients by providing streamlined process mapping, developing template documents and automating frequently-used documents, reducing time spent by internal resources reviewing documents.
