Meghan joined the Montréal office in 2024. As a summer student, she provided support to various teams, but she has a particular interest in commercial litigation and class actions.

Before joining the office, she completed her law degree at Université de Montréal, where she was co-founder and president the faculty's Real Estate committee. Alongside working at a legal clinic specialized in housing law, Meghan interned at a global non-profit organization dedicated to tackling issues related to poverty and climate change.

Education

- LL.B., Université de Montréal, 2025
- B.A. (Psychology), McGill University, 2022
