Victoria practices in BLG's International Trade and Investment Group, focusing on trade agreement negotiations, trade and investment treaty disputes, trade remedies, and customs. Her background advising governments and businesses allows her to provide strategic and practical advice to clients across a wide range of sectors.

Victoria was previously counsel in the Government of Canada's Trade Law Bureau and a Senior Policy Advisor in the Government of Ontario. She was involved in the negotiation of the Canada-EU CETA and the CPTPP agreement, and has acted in trade disputes before the WTO and investment disputes under the NAFTA and other agreements.
