Located in the Calgary office, Kimberley Ho is the National Director, Professional Recruiting. She works collaboratively with the Talent Acquisition National Team on strategic recruitment processes for lateral professionals and students. As a group, the team works together to develop creative and innovative student programs.

Additionally, Kim has been responsible for student recruitment and student programs in the Calgary office since 2015, and continues to work in that capacity. Kim works closely with the members of the student committee in her role. Kim loves working with students and creating opportunities for their individual professional development and growth. She truly believes the strength of any student program is in building strong and cohesive teams.

Kim brings experience working with students from her previous role as Assistant Career Advisor at the University of Calgary's Faculty of Law. She has also worked as a project manager for a digital strategy company, a business development coordinator for a mid-sized law firm and self-employed as an event planner.

Education

- BA, University of Calgary, 1989
