BLG Recognized In The 2018 Global Arbitration Review 100

Toronto (April 23, 2018) — BLG has been recognized among the top international arbitration firms in the current edition of the Global Arbitration Review 100 ("GAR 100").

The Firm has been showcased within this global directory which recognizes international arbitration practices for the complexity and consistency of their scope of work. The directory's editorial notes that BLG has the highest value of pending case work of any Canadian law firm listed. In fact, we have more than twice as many pending cases as arbitration counsel than the next listed Canadian law firm, proving once again that BLG is the firm most clients turn to for all their complex arbitration needs.

The ninth edition of the GAR 100 provides analysis on practices of all sizes from around the world, covering every level of the market and offering country specific advice about managing the most significant international arbitral proceedings.
