Sina is a 2026 articling student at BLG's Vancouver office.

Prior to attending law school, Sina received a Bachelor of Applied Science in Civil Engineering from the University of British Columbia. He then worked in the construction management industry, leading the planning and execution of commercial and residential projects, gaining hands-on experience in tendering, contract administration, and dispute resolution.

During his second year of law school, Sina participated in the Law Students' Legal Advice Program, advocating for clients in contractual disputes at the Small Claims Court and appearing before the Provincial Court of British Columbia and the Residential Tenancy Branch. Sina also gained experience working with the in-house legal team at a large mining company through the Corporate Counsel Externship Program.

Sina chose BLG for its reputation for delivering top-quality legal services and its vibrant, authentic culture among its lawyers.

In his spare time, Sina enjoys training for triathlons, skiing, yoga, tennis, basketball, and eating good food around the city.
