International Arbitration

International arbitration is inherently multifaceted, necessitating a skilled, collaborative team of advocates who offer a comprehensive range of services.

Our experienced international arbitration lawyers offer a full range of services, including:

- advising on arbitration provisions
- selecting appropriate arbitrators for your specific circumstances
- persuasively presenting your case before arbitral tribunals
- enforcing or challenging arbitration awards
- finding procedural and strategic alternatives best suited to your needs

Our team advocates for private and public corporations, governments and industry groups, including:

- energy
- oil and gas
- forestry
- telecommunications
- software and pharmaceutical licensing and development
- insurance
- banking
- securities
- medical and health care
- maritime
- construction

Several members of our team act as arbitrators, giving us unique procedural, substantive and strategic insights from the decision-makers' perspective.
