Randall practices in the areas of commercial lending and debt financing, as well as bankruptcy and insolvency. He works with financial institutions, borrowers and private lenders on a variety of debt-financing and lending transactions, including syndicated lending, acquisition financing, real estate development financing, asset-based lending, leveraged finance and multi-jurisdictional financings.

Randall also works on insolvency-related matters, including foreclosures, bankruptcies, realizations and corporate restructurings under the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act and the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act.

After law school, Randall completed a judicial clerkship at the Ontario Superior Court of Justice from 2017 to 2018.

Randall is also a member of the Law Society of Ontario and has acted on transactions with both a B.C. and Ontario component.
