Victoria is an associate in BLG's Dispute group. She maintains a broad civil litigation and dispute resolution practice with a focus on commercial litigation and health care disputes.

During law school, Victoria completed a Dean's Fellowship in legal research and writing, served as a caseworker for a community legal clinic and edited the Ottawa Law Review.

Before returning as an associate, Victoria joined BLG as a summer student and completed her articles at the firm, gaining experience working with lawyers across a range of litigation and dispute resolution matters.
