Jiwan is a summer student at BLG's Toronto office for the 2021 summer term. She is focusing on business law, with a particular interest in privacy and technology.

As a law student, Jiwan volunteers at the UBC Law Students' Legal Advice Program, Law Review, and Legal Education Outreach Program. Prior to joining BLG, Jiwan researched and proposed legislative reforms, and developed personal information protection practices. She also interned at a leading firm to produce automated contract-generating software.

In her spare time, Jiwan enjoys playing team sports, watching psychological thrillers, and trying out new cocktails.
