New Partner Nicole Bacsalmasi joins BLG's Corporate & Capital Markets Group

Calgary (April 11, 2024) – Borden Ladner Gervais LLP (BLG) is pleased to welcome Nicole Bacsalmasi to BLG'S Corporate & Capital Markets Group.

Nicole brings broad experience, keen problem solving and an innovative approach to corporate and deal structuring. She is focused on capital markets mandates, including initial and secondary public offerings, private placements and other exempt market offerings. She has experience with M&A transactions with public and private companies, general corporate legal advisory, corporate governance and regulatory compliance advice. Nicole has experience working with companies in the oil & gas and energy industry as well as early-stage companies in all industries. Additionally, Nicole is knowledgeable in investment fund and REIT structuring, formation and transactional work.

"Nicole uses innovative approaches to complex challenges that help clients find successful outcomes and achieve their goals," said Prema Thiele, National Group Head of BLG's Corporate & Capital Markets Group. "Her knowledge in complex deal structuring and financing is an asset to our team and will provide strategic and important advice for our M&A clients."

BLG's Corporate & Capital Markets Group is a national team with market-leading expertise in M&A, corporate finance and private equity. As one of the most experienced corporate and securities law groups in the country, clients rely on our trusted advisors to help achieve their ambition.
