Marc-Antoine's practice is focused on financing as well as banking and financial services. He represents banks and other financial institutions but also borrowers in various financing operations, whether on a provincial, national or international scale.

Before going into law, Marc-Antoine completed a Bachelor of Business Administration, majoring in finance. His interest in the financial sector led him to work for a major financial institution for almost two years. He is currently studying for his CFA designation.

Prior to joining BLG, Marc-Antoine worked here as a student and completed his articling with us.
