Jacob is a 2025 articling student at BLG's Vancouver office.

Prior to attending law school, Jacob obtained a Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Victoria, majored in psychology with a minor in business. During his first year of law school, Jacob volunteered as a clinician with Pro Bono Students Canada at the ID Clinic. In his second year, Jacob served as publications manager for UBC Law Review.

Jacob chose BLG because of its excellent reputation, strong mentorship, and kind atmosphere.

In his spare time, Jacob enjoys cooking, bartending, playing poker, and teaching classical music.
