Nadine is an articling student for the 2021-2022 term. Her rotation is focused on Disputes

As a law student, Nadine volunteered at the University of Ottawa Community Legal Clinic, where she had invaluable practical learning experience in the Tenants division. She was an active member of the faculty's student government (Common Law Student Society) leading the social committee as VP of social affairs. She also represented the University of Ottawa at the 2021 Laskin national moot, where she received the award for 4th best oralist.

Nadine chose BLG because of its collaborative friendly environment, as well as its innovative initiatives, such as using AI tools.

In her spare time Nadine loves to sing, read about personal development and check out new restaurants.
