Jessica's practice focuses on general corporate and securities law matters for public and private companies. She assists clients on a variety of transactions, including private placements of equity and debt securities, public offerings, reverse takeovers, going-public transactions, mergers and acquisitions, and corporate governance matters.

Jessica has served as corporate secretary and as a director to several public companies and reporting issuers.

Prior to joining BLG, Jessica practiced at a boutique corporate securities firm based in Toronto. During law school, Jessica actively participated in mooting and international negotiation competitions.
