Olivier's expertise lies in construction litigation. His clients include contractors, subcontractors, real estate developers, and surety companies.

His practice focuses on a variety of disputes related to project execution – additional work claims, delays and impact costs, contractual issues, and legal hypothec remedies. He is also called upon to help with cases pertaining to surety bonds and professional liability.

Olivier is involved in every stage of the legal process, drafting pleadings, preparing evidence, conducting examinations, and pleading before Québec courts. He also assists his clients with alternative dispute resolution in the context of settlement conferences and mediations.
