Jessica is a case manager on our Discovery Services team. She is responsible for managing electronic files, including but not limited to processing, importing, exporting and archiving data. She searches and collects social media profiles and prepares defensible reports of social media content.

Jessica advises lawyers, law clerks and clients on e-Discovery, document management, litigation support applications and technology issues, and provides support to legal teams setting up electronic trials.

She develops and implements training plans for peers and end users in Summation, Relativity, X1 Social Discovery and Primafact. Jessica also has experience using Law PreDiscovery, Nuix and Rampiva.
