

Trade Disputes

International trade law disputes are often contentious. Having an experienced legal team that will advocate for you and defend your interests is essential.

Our professionals are counsel of record in more than 150 trade remedy matters. They have also litigated trade issues before the Canada Border Services Agency and the Canadian International Trade Tribunal, federal courts and the Supreme Court of Canada; led legal teams in a wide range of WTO panel, Appellate Body and arbitration proceedings; and represented clients in binational panel disputes under the NAFTA.

Whether it is anti-dumping, countervail or safeguards proceedings; customs and tariff disputes; or dispute settlement under international trade agreements, our international trade law disputes team has the specialized skills and experience to provide you with the right advice and top-notch legal representation.
