As a Summer Law Student, Talia is assisting lawyers on a wide variety of tasks within our Business and Disputes groups.

During Talia's first year of law school, she volunteered with Canadian Civil Liberties Association through Pro-bono Students Canada, where she assisted with transcription and research for a bail and pre-trial detention report. She also serves as Co-President of the Black Law Students' Association of Manitoba, as well as the 1L Co-Representative, and now Treasurer, of the Cultural Diversity in Law Group.

Talia chose BLG after experiencing the extremely welcoming culture during the 1L recruit process. BLG stood out right away in their legal excellence, collegiality, and national reach.

Talia loves traveling, reading, and going to the movies. In her spare time, she enjoys exploring local restaurants and trying new things
