Canada is an attractive place for businesses around the world interested in establishing a presence in another country. Our stable economy and welcoming environment for international investors regularly brings in investment from corporations in the U.S., Europe and Asia. BLG partner Kent Kufeldt, a leader in cross-border financing transactions, and merger, acquisition and reorganization transactions, discusses the ins and outs of M&A transactions for any company interested in the Canadian market. From plans of arrangement and takeover bids, to acquiring minority interest in a company and advising on the Investment Canada Act, find out how we can help you gain a foothold here.
