Cameron advises public and private clients in a wide range of industries, including those seeking disruptive change through technology. He practices corporate and securities law with clients ranging from emerging and high growth companies to large multinational companies and financial institutions listed on Canadian and foreign stock exchanges. Cameron is experienced in representing senior management, boards of directors, acquirors, targets, and special committees, in public and private M&A transactions (hostile and friendly), proxy contests and restructurings.

He also has extensive experience advising issuers and investment banks on corporate finance and regulatory matters and has led numerous initial public offerings (IPOs), including SPAC IPOs, as well as reverse takeovers (RTOs), “at-the-market” equity distribution programs (ATMs), substantial issuer bids (SIBs), normal course issuer bids (NCIBs) and other new issues, secondary offerings and private placements – both domestic and cross border.

Mr. MacDonald is the Co-Chair of BLG’s national Sports & Gaming Law practice group and was recognized as one of Lexpert’s Top 40 Canadian Lawyers under 40 in 2015.

Mr. MacDonald also currently serves as the Chair of BLG’s Students Committee.
