OHA ten tips for hospital governance compliance

January 05, 2026

The Ontario Hospital Association (OHA), in partnership with Borden Ladner Gervais LLP (BLG), has developed this resource to provide individuals supporting hospital governance with 10 practical and frequently considered compliance tips.

This resource addresses essential governance areas and reflects practices compliant with the Ontario Not-for-Profit Corporations Act, 2010, including meeting management and documentation, consent agenda practices, corporate member meeting compliance, virtual meeting requirements, record retention, conflict of interest management, board orientation, and skills-based recruitment. Each tip references relevant templates from the Guide to Good Governance, Fourth Edition, providing hospitals with ready-to-use tools to strengthen their governance frameworks.
