Corporate Governance

Boards and committees, including special committees, need comprehensive, results-oriented advice to address governance issues as they arise in managing conflicts, transactions and day-to-day management. Our professionals help guide clients through relevant laws, best practices and practical considerations.

Our multidisciplinary teams collaborate with clients to identify potential issues and create results. We offer targeted advice on governance matters relating to:

- board and committee mandates and processes
- governance policies
- shareholder advisory firms
- investigations, reviews and reports
- director and officer liability issues
- conflicts of interest
- board training and assessment
- director and officer liability insurance
- corporate litigation

We have expertise in working with public companies on:

- going private and related party transactions
- stakeholder activism

We assist with shareholder and member matters in the private and not-for-profit space.

Our professionals frequently present to boards and member and trade associations.

We work closely with the public, private and not-for-profit sectors and assist:

- boards of directors, governors and trustees
- committees of boards
- management and shareholders
- other stakeholders

We have experience with governance reviews and implementation. Our team has drafted manuals for sectors and individual clients on effective governance.
