Dillon is a returning summer student at BLG's Toronto office, where she focuses on health data privacy and regulatory law.

She volunteers with the Osgoode IP Clinic, the Christian Legal Fellowship, and the Korean Canadian Lawyers Association. Before joining BLG, Dillon worked as a hospital pharmacist during the COVID-19 pandemic. She later transitioned to a role in the Ethics & Business Integrity Department at a global pharmaceutical company, where she received national recognition for developing a case-based compliance training module. Dillon was subsequently recruited to work as an Internal Auditor based in Boston.

Dillon chose to return to BLG after working with dedicated, excellent, and supportive colleagues last summer. She looks forward to exploring new learning opportunities with the firm this summer.

In Dillon's spare time, she enjoys traveling, and her list of cities to visit is ever-growing.
