Isaac is an associate in the Disputes group, focusing on the health sector. He works on civil claims and administrative disputes, and advises clients on health regulatory matters.

Isaac graduated law school with distinction and received several awards including the J.S.D. Tory Writing Prize. During law school, he was a research assistant at the Health Ethics Law and Policy Lab at Western, and was a research student in law and bioethics at the Hospital for Sick Children (SickKids). Before attending law school, Isaac earned both undergraduate and graduate degrees in bioethics.

Isaac summered and articled with BLG before returning as an associate. During his articles, Isaac was seconded to the Legal, Risk, and Privacy department at SickKids.
