Roxane counsels her clients on complex matters related to urban planning, expropriation, municipal taxation, environment and energy. She also represents them before various courts and administrative tribunals at the trial and appellate levels.

By combining an advisory and litigation practice in these varied industries, for both public and private sector organizations, Roxane has developed a versatile and holistic approach that can be tailored to the needs of each client.

Before joining BLG, she worked in the litigation department of a large municipality, then at a national firm.
