Bill C-86: Maintaining a Register of Individuals

May 09, 2019

BLG's client toolkit provides guidance for federal corporations governed by the Canada Business Corporations Act that will be impacted by this new legislation.

Canadian private federal corporations will be required — as of June 13, 2019 — to maintain a register of individuals considered to have significant control of a business in accordance with Bill C-86, the Budget Implementation Act, 2018, No. 2.

To assist you, BLG has developed a toolkit that organizations may use to prepare as non-compliance could result in significant penalties for both the organization and its board of directors:

- Bill C-86: What you need to know and how to prepare
- New Requirements Regarding Beneficial Ownership of Federal Corporations
- New Register of Individuals with Significant Control Checklist
- Register of Individuals with Significant Control (Sample)
- Resolution for Location of Register of Individuals with Significant Control (Sample)
